

Arachnids
Austin
2010

Questions

- How are arachnids different from other groups of animals?
- What are some of the common arachnids in Ohio?
- Can arachnids be kept as pets?
- How dangerous are poisonous arachnids?

How are arachnids different from other groups of animals?

Arachnids differ from other groups of animals because most arachnids have more than six pairs of legs.

Thousands are borne at a time

They are the biggest species known.

What are some of the common arachnids in Ohio

- Some of the common arachnids in Ohio are mostly spiders, ticks and mites but there are more such as tape worms, potato bugs, bedbugs, flees, dust mites and crustaceans such as crabs .

Can arachnids be kept as pets?

- Arachnids can be kept as pets. 80% of pets are Tarantulas, scorpions, and millipedes.

FINI

